

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Walter J. Rose, a veteran of the Civil war, died May 19 at his home in Middlebury of cerebral apoplexy.

Rev. D. G. Porteous of Springfield, Mass., a former pastor of the Methodist church in East Burke, sails for France soon to do Y. M. C. A. work.

Miss G. Sadie Smith, for eight years an official reporter for Windham county court, was given a reception in the county court room at Newfane May 15 and presented $25 in gold.

L. M. Kingsley, for 15 years bookkeeper for the J. G. Turnbull company in Orleans, finished work last week and will take a needed rest before undertaking new duties.

When a butting saw, which he was operating, broke, Fred Corwell of Shelton was instantly killed Saturday morning at the mills of the Missisquoi Pulp & Paper company of Shelton Springs. He leaves a wife and two children.

Charles Morgan was badly injured at his farm in Rutland Saturday by a bull, which he had taken out to water and which turned on him, backed him against a fence and began bunting him with his head. Had the animal not been dehorned Mr. Morgan would have been killed. As it was, he was badly bruised and internally injured, but will probably recover.

Leon Turner, 19 years old, a Middlebury boy, was thrown from his motorcycle when a speeding auto from East Middlebury came so near him that it hit the handlebars of the machine and threw him into the road on his head. His face was badly torn, three teeth were knocked out, his lip was split and there were many cuts and abrasions.

William Balch was instantly killed when struck by a bolt of lightning at his home in Shrewsbury Sunday evening. He was in the barn feeding the cows, two of which were also killed. Mr. Balch was 49 years old. The end of the barn which was struck was considerably damaged, but not set on fire, and the horses which were killed were valuable heavy farm animals.

Philip Ames, son of Mr. and Mrs. Solon B. Ames of Middlebury, is in a critical condition at a New Haven, Conn., hospital as a result of an automobile accident which occurred there Saturday evening. It is feared he has concussion of the brain and internal injuries. Two others in the party were injured, but how the accident happened has not been learned.

The garden of Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Pond in Rutland was thrown open to the public for three days last week, the flowers being a riot of color. Dr. Pond has made a specialty of tulips and has some 10,000 bulbs. Besides the tulips, the garden contains many other varieties of flowers. No admission was charged to the garden, but a box was placed where money could be left, which was given to the Red Cross the amount resulting being $21.

Private Adolphus Ghio writes his father, Alfred Ghio, in Rutland, that he has been gassed three times in three months, but only slightly incapacitated each time. His brother, Alfred, also in France and three months in the service, has been promoted to first sergeant. Ghio, another brother, is at Camp Devens, Mass., having been drafted after an unsuccessful attempt to enlist. Adolphus Ghio is in the 102d machine gun battalion.

Two Burlington aldermen are in Mary Fletcher hospital, Fred A. Deyette with a broken leg and Edward B. Bisette with burns which he received several weeks ago when the plant of the Vermont Chocolate company was burned. Mr. Deyette was out driving when the accident occurred during which his leg was broken. As he was coming down a hill, part of the harness broke and the horse began to kick, striking Mr. Deyette's leg.

DEATH OF MORETOWN WOMAN.

Mrs. Valeria T. Gill Was Visiting Grandson in Thorford Center.

Mrs. Valeria Thompson Gill died at the home of her grandson, Philetus Teachout, in Thorford Center May 14. Mrs. Gill went from Moretown, where she resided, to spend a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Philetus Teachout. She was taken very ill May 9 when returning from an auto ride. A physician was summoned and pronounced it cerebral meningitis from which she never rallied. She was born in Jericho, Nov. 28, 1845. Since her husband's death 12 years ago, she had resided in Moretown. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. George Thompson, who was at her bedside at the time of her death; five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Gill had practically lived in Bolton, Essex and Moretown all their married life. Three children were born to them: Cora, who died in July, 1894, Frank, September, 1913, and Mrs. George Thompson of Bolton, mentioned above.

The remains were taken to Bolton, where the funeral took place, Rev. Albert Abbott of Moretown officiating. The interment was in the cemetery at Bolton station. The bearers were George Thompson, sr., Charles Ryan, Philetus Teachout and George Thompson, jr.

Many Church Federations Reported.

At the state convention of Congregational churches held in Lyndonville this afternoon, among the committee reports, was the statement of Rev. Fraser Metzger of Randolph, chairman of the committee on inter-church federation, that during the past year fifteen unions or federations of churches have been effected, in which Congregational churches were concerned. The list was as follows: Bristol, Calais, East Calais, Conventry, Irasburg, Lunenburg, Montgomery Center, Jamaica, Wilder, Wolcott.

Former Governor Charles W. Gates, chairman of the committee on social justice and community service, presented a "Program for Community Service in a Vermont Church." This program has already been adopted by the annual conference of the Methodist church and will be presented to the Baptist state convention in the fall. The committee on religious education and the ministry by Rev. Stanley F. Blomfield of Montpelier, chairman, reported a carefully prepared plan for safeguarding the entrance to the Congregational ministry. It proposes some radical changes, which are likely to be adopted, but only after considerable discussion.

Badges of Honor

HEARD M. S. CLAIMS.

At St. Albans Methodist Church Rededication.

St. Albans, May 21.—At the banquet held last evening in the vestry of the Methodist Episcopal church, in connection with the reopening and rededication of the church, which was closed all winter for remodeling, Rev. C. E. Torrance, D. D., of Albany, N. Y., formerly of this city, spoke on "The Mount of Vision." Remarks were made by Rev. William Shaw, Ph. D., of this city, superintendent of the southern district of the Vermont Methodist conference, and Rev. J. Ralph Magee, D. D., Y. M. C. A. chaplain of Boston, brother of the local pastor.

This afternoon from 2 until 4 o'clock a reception to the ladies was held in the new church parlors, and from 4 to 6 o'clock there will be a reception to the Sunday school children.

Yesterday afternoon an education jubilee was held and the proposition for raising money for Montpelier seminary was considered. Rev. W. B. Sultz, D. D., of New York, presided, and pastors from several towns near St. Albans were present.

TO ATTEND WAR COUNCIL.

State Commissioner of Agriculture Brigham Goes to Boston.

St. Albans, May 21.—E. S. Brigham, state commissioner of agriculture, left last night for Boston to attend a meeting of the New England farmers' war council. From Boston he will go to New York to attend the national milk and dairy farm exposition.

BIDS WANTED ON WOOL.

Vermont's Two Pounds Allocated by President and Mrs. Wilson.

Governor Graham's office has received a telegram from H. P. Davison, chairman of the war council of the American Red Cross, stating that President and Mrs. Wilson have presented to the Red Cross the shearings from the sheep that are grazing on the White House lawn, with the request that this wool be auctioned in each state during the Red Cross week fund campaign week for the benefit of the fund. There will be approximately two pounds of wool for each state. The total amount secured from all the states will be turned into the war fund as the president's fund.

The governor is asked to receive bids for the wool that is to be sent to Vermont and to publish each day in the papers of the state the bids received during the preceding day with the names of the bidders.

Bids for the wool may be sent to the governor's office at Montpelier, and it is expected that the names of the first bidders will be published in Tuesday's papers.

New Plan Suggested.

Washington, May 21.—Instead of taking over the so-called short-line railroads, the railroad administration, it was yesterday learned, is considering plans to insure them a fair division of joint rates, local increases of rates by state plan. ARTIST'S SISTER PERJURER?

Edith Ranger Arrested in New York, Charged with Filing Bogus Will.

New York, May 21.—Miss Edith Ranger, 55 years old, a sister of the late Henry W. Ranger, a noted American painter, who died Nov. 7, 1916, leaving an estate worth $250,000, was arrested here yesterday on a charge of perjury.

Miss Ranger is under indictment for "conspiracy and subornation of perjury" in connection with the filing of an alleged bogus will laying claim to her brother's property. A first will, which had been filed for probate, left the fortune to the National Academy of Design. Subsequently a Stamford, Conn., lawyer produced a second alleged will. Later Martin W. Littleton, attorney for the testator, accused Miss Ranger and her counsel of falsifying the document, and the case is now pending in the courts.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of Hall's Catarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. P. J.
